Please be advised that you must meet the following eligibility requirements in order to be considered to participate in the television project currently entitled “Unstuck” (the “Program”):

- You must be at least eighteen (18) years of age to participate.
- You must be legally eligible to live in the United States and work in the United States on the Program, or you are in the process of attempting to obtain lawful authorization so that you will be eligible to live in the United States and work in the United States on the Program by the time pre-production begins.
- You must be available to work with a spiritual advisor for one day in July 2018.
- You must not be a candidate for public office and must agree not to become one until after one (1) year after the initial exhibition of the episodes of the Program in which you appear, if selected as a participant.

All eligibility determinations shall be made solely by Producer in its sole discretion and are final and binding in all respects. Producer reserves the right to add to or modify the eligibility requirements at any time.

In addition, Producer reserves the right at any time to render ineligible any person who Producer determines, in its sole discretion, is sufficiently connected with the production, administration, or distribution of the Program such that his or her participation in the Program could create the appearance of impropriety.

If you are selected as a potential participant you must execute waivers and release agreements required by Producer and its licensees, successors or assigns.

Any offer to become a participant may be conditioned upon your submission to a background check, in accordance with applicable laws.
